1 directly to me for docketing. All incoming mail for the Civil Division is routed to me for
2 necessary receipt processing, docketing (if necessary) and distribution.

3 4. On April 22, 2008, I made a thorough, careful and diligent search of the 4 records, suits, complaints, and documents under my care, custody, and control. My 5 diligent search, as just described, indicates that the United States Attorney's Office for the 6 Southern District of California, San Diego, California, has not been served with a
7 summons and complaint in the above-entitled matter.

8 5. On April 22, 2008, I contacted the United States Attorney General's Office
9 in Washington, D.C., by telephone and I was informed by the responsible clerk there that
10 the United States Attorney General has not been served with the summons and complaint
11 in this case.

12 I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct, and, if
13 called to testify, would be able to do so as to the information set forth above.

14 Executed this 23rd day of April, 2008, at San Diego, California.

I, Gwendolyn E. Murray, make the following declaration in lieu of affidavit pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746 to the best of my knowledge and belief. I am aware that this declaration is the legal equivalent of a statement under oath and that it will be filed in the United States District Court for the Southern District of California.

1. I am a Tort Claim Examiner with the United States Postal Service National Tort Center, St. Louis General Law Office.

2. In that capacity, I have full access to, and regularly utilize, all Postal Service records that are maintained on each administrative claim submitted for adjudication to the Postal Service pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Tort Claims Act, §§ 1346(b) and 2671 et seq. regarding incidents that occur within the State of California.

3. I conducted a search of all Postal Service records of administrative tort claims submitted for adjudication maintained at the local and national levels or evidence of an administrative claim filed by the above-named plaintiff. No such claim was discovered.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed this 25th day of April, 2008.
